Counting

- 4321 Is Practice for tracing a pathway out from underneath the polyolith - repeating what is said by others as if it was an original idea. When this idea is revealed to be untrue, the belief is doubled down. To crawl out of the ideahole, count backgrounds.

Creating

- #s from skin cells into taxels (pixels, but tactile) from dream images, unless one doesn't dream images (my brother) from calories, unless one doesn't need calories (the fire alarm) from tax software that serves purposes most advantageous to those who neither accept nor deny the biddings of empire held close under the microscope to the degree which actions appear not to intersect when in actuality they collide, fumble, and gush open their interiors and the foaming of these infatuations no one really ever wants but the outlandish aspiration overshadows the brass tax question regarding whether or not we actually need to make what we're capable of.
